DeFuria Art Studio Classes Student Contract

The following rules are established in order to: 1. Allow Defuria Art Studio to continue as an Art education and Fine Art Studio, 2. Maintain a professional teaching atmosphere 3. Assure students of the best possible art education

Safety:

- No Smoking on the premises at any time.
- While at the studio, students are expected to conduct themselves in a civilized and respectable manner. Roughhousing and profanity will not be tolerated. Students can be dismissed from class if they do not adhere to these rules.
- Students must stay with their teachers in the classroom.
- Those responsible for picking up students must come into the studio to get the child.
- Due to Board of Health regulations, eating food during art lessons is not permitted. Students are only to eat during designated lunch times and areas.
- Students must adhere to all rules and regulations set forth by the current art camp location.
- Parents are responsible for disclosing to teachers any mental, behavioral, or medical information about their child that might lead to a disruption of class/inability to follow instruction during class time. Failure to do so might lead to dismissal from class if child proves to be unable to conduct themselves to reasonable standards.

Fees:

- Payment of $50 deposit is due upon registration, per student, per week.
- The remaining balance of tuition is due on June 30th in full– the deposits will be deducted from the full tuition. ($350- 50 deposit = $300 due) Failure to pay the remaining balance by June 30th will forfeit your spot and the $50 deposit.
- Parents are responsible for all fees and obtaining all supplies from the provided supply list.
- All checks/payments for tuition are to be made payable to the teacher.

- We do not offer refunds or proration of camp tuition for any reason.

Weather policy:

- Students will eat outside when weather permits, when not, children will eat inside.
- DeFuria Art Studio is not responsible for any acts of weather that might cancel classes.

Emergency Policy:

- Parents are responsible for providing their children's teacher with emergency numbers and designated individuals to pick up children. Teachers will not release children to any individual other than those designated in writing to the Parents/Guardians.
- Parents are responsible for providing their child's teachers with emergency medical information as appropriate.
